05/31/2011		MINUTE ORDER (paperless) granting as unnecessary 143 plaintiff's Motion for Leave to File First Amended Complaint and for Further Discovery. Notwithstanding the Court's April 4, 2011 Order requiring plaintiff to seek leave of Court prior to filing an amended complaint, upon consideration of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15(a)(1), the plaintiff is entitled to file an amended complaint once as a matter of course before the complaint has been served or any responsive pleading has been filed. Thus, the Court does not have discretion to deny the filing of the amended complaint. See Scott-Blanton v. Universal City Studios Prods. LLLP, 244 F.R.D. 67, 69-70 (D.D.C. 2007) ("Because this is the plaintiff's first amended complaint -- filed before any responsive pleading -- the court does not have discretion to deny the plaintiff's motion to amend the complaint due to futility."); see also Moore v. Aikens, No. 10-cv-64, 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 19110, at *2-3 (M.D. Ga. Feb. 7, 2011) ("Court lacks the discretion to reject an amended complaint... when the Plaintiff has the right to file an amended complaint as a matter of course" in circumstances where plaintiff filed motion to amend complaint prior to the filing of defendants' motion to dismiss). In addition, the Amended Complaint lists new putative defendants since the original Complaint listed none. Accordingly, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(m), the plaintiff automatically has 120 days to name and serve defendants listed in the Amended Complaint. Whether any extension to name and serve will be granted under Rule 4(m) depends upon the plaintiff's diligence in pursuing the discovery authorized under the June 25, 2010 Order. Signed by Judge Beryl A. Howell on May 31, 2011. (lcbah1) (Entered: 05/31/2011)

11/04/2011		MINUTE ORDER (paperless) granting in part and denying in part 306 plaintiff's Motion for Additional Extension of Time to Name and Serve Certain Defendants. This case was originally filed on May 24, 2010 and the plaintiff has been conducting jurisdictional discovery to identify defendants for over sixteen months, since June 25, 2010. Despite the fact that the plaintiff issued subpoenas to Internet Service Providers ("ISPs") over one year ago, ISPs have not completed production of identifying information for the putative defendants remaining in this case. The plaintiff states that ISPs have not produced information because of "motions purportedly filed with the Court." No motions filed by putative defendants are pending on the docket in this case. Given the length of jurisdictional discovery, and the plaintiff's failure to move to compel production of identifying information from the ISPs withholding that information, the plaintiff has not demonstrated good cause to warrant an extension of time to name and serve defendants greater than thirty (30) days. Accordingly, the plaintiff's time to name and serve defendants under Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m) is extended until December 5, 2011. The plaintiff will not be granted any further extensions of time to name and serve defendants based solely upon delay in obtaining identifying information from ISPs. It is further ordered that, pursuant to the plaintiff's representations in its November 2, 2011 motion for an extension of time, defendants Daniel Bremer-Wirtig, Elena Ditraglia, Shyam Madhavan, Michael Sein, Sergio Sapaj, and the putative defendants listed in Exhibit 1 of the plaintiff's November 2, 2011 motion are hereby dismissed without prejudice. Signed by Judge Beryl A. Howell on November 4, 2011. (lcbah1) (Entered: 11/04/2011)

01/10/2012		MINUTE ORDER (paperless) Charles Ralis and Wyatt Boyd have filed letters requesting the Court to dismiss them from this case. ECF Nos. 325, 326. Messrs. Ralis and Boyd, however, are not named as defendants. Moreover, on December 17, 2011, the Clerk closed this case because judgment had been entered against all defendants who were not previously dismissed. Accordingly, Messrs. Ralis and Wyatt's request to be dismissed from this case is denied as moot. Signed by Judge Beryl A. Howell on January 10, 2012. (lcbah1) (Entered: 01/10/2012)
